In this issue:
- IFKF Survey
- 52nd European Renal Association
- Endorsing Publications for Patients
- IFKF Call for nominations for the Joel D. Kopple Award
- WKD—Initiatives

Take part at our IFKF’s needs survey!
Don’t miss the opportunity to create the organization you want. Click here and give us your opinion.

The 52nd Congress of the European Renal Association-European Dialysis Transplant Association to be held in London, UK at the ExCeL Conference Centre, 28–31 May.

There are 2 satellite meetings planned on renal nutrition:
1. The 2 day ISRNM Total Nutrition Therapy (TNT) COURSE on 26 and 27 May:
2. The 1 day British Dietetic Association’s Renal Nutrition Group Meeting

The website for both is: http://www.era-edta2015.org/en-US/satellite-meetings

Publications for Patients
The Irish Kidney Association published a series of booklets for patients that can be viewed online: A general Guide, Treatment by dialysis and Transplantation, Kidney Donation and Emotional Wellbeing.

Also available for purchase is the best Renal Cookbook ever: “Truly Tasty”.
Visit their website to learn more about this, www.ika.ie

SAVE THE DATE!
IFKF’s Annual Meeting will take place in Tokyo, from July 9th – 12th. For more information visit our website: www.ifkf2015.org

Home Hemodialysis
Take a look to the video created by the Kidney Health Australia about the benefits and concerns of Home Hemodialysis.

You can also watch more videos and read other related articles on their website: www.kidney.org.au

Call for nominations to the Joel D. Kopple Award
We are calling for nominations for the IFKF Joel Kopple Award, for outstanding performance of an individual or organization on the prevention, detection and treatment of kidney disease. The award will be presented at our Annual Meeting, JUNE 9—12 2015 in Tokyo, Japan.

For additional information please visit our website: http://www.ifkf.org/awards/joel-d-kopple-award.html

Let us know if you have any questions, please contact Cinthya Uzcategui, email address: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org.

WKD—Initiatives
See the picture of the 10th WKD in Hong Kong. The 10th WKD was celebrated in Hong Kong by 800+ healthcare staff and patients with songs and dances (to promote exercise), including a flash mob dance by 100 people and a line dance participated by all attendees to the music of “HAPPY”. Healthcare staff took part in a short drama to promote “Kidney Health for All”. The IFKF WKD website was translated to Chinese. (click on the image to see the video of the flash mob)

We will like to receive more information about the activities and programs in your organization. Share information with us, so we can share this with all of our IFKF’s members.

Do not forget to send us pictures of your WKD Activity so we can share this with all of our members.

Email: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org

The Irish Kidney Association published a series of booklets for patients that can be viewed online: A general Guide, Treatment by dialysis and Transplantation, Kidney Donation and Emotional Wellbeing.

Also available for purchase is the best Renal Cookbook ever: “Truly Tasty”.
Visit their website to learn more about this, www.ika.ie

SAVE THE DATE!
IFKF’s Annual Meeting will take place in Tokyo, from July 9th – 12th. For more information visit our website: www.ifkf2015.org

Home Hemodialysis
Take a look to the video created by the Kidney Health Australia about the benefits and concerns of Home Hemodialysis.

You can also watch more videos and read other related articles on their website: www.kidney.org.au

Call for nominations to the Joel D. Kopple Award
We are calling for nominations for the IFKF Joel Kopple Award, for outstanding performance of an individual or organization on the prevention, detection and treatment of kidney disease. The award will be presented at our Annual Meeting, JUNE 9—12 2015 in Tokyo, Japan.

For additional information please visit our website: http://www.ifkf.org/awards/joel-d-kopple-award.html

Let us know if you have any questions, please contact Cinthya Uzcategui, email address: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org.

WKD—Initiatives
See the picture of the 10th WKD in Hong Kong. The 10th WKD was celebrated in Hong Kong by 800+ healthcare staff and patients with songs and dances (to promote exercise), including a flash mob dance by 100 people and a line dance participated by all attendees to the music of “HAPPY”. Healthcare staff took part in a short drama to promote “Kidney Health for All”. The IFKF WKD website was translated to Chinese. (click on the image to see the video of the flash mob)

We will like to receive more information about the activities and programs in your organization. Share information with us, so we can share this with all of our IFKF’s members.

Do not forget to send us pictures of your WKD Activity so we can share this with all of our members.

Email: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org

The Irish Kidney Association published a series of booklets for patients that can be viewed online: A general Guide, Treatment by dialysis and Transplantation, Kidney Donation and Emotional Wellbeing.

Also available for purchase is the best Renal Cookbook ever: “Truly Tasty”.
Visit their website to learn more about this, www.ika.ie

SAVE THE DATE!
IFKF’s Annual Meeting will take place in Tokyo, from July 9th – 12th. For more information visit our website: www.ifkf2015.org

Home Hemodialysis
Take a look to the video created by the Kidney Health Australia about the benefits and concerns of Home Hemodialysis.

You can also watch more videos and read other related articles on their website: www.kidney.org.au

Call for nominations to the Joel D. Kopple Award
We are calling for nominations for the IFKF Joel Kopple Award, for outstanding performance of an individual or organization on the prevention, detection and treatment of kidney disease. The award will be presented at our Annual Meeting, JUNE 9—12 2015 in Tokyo, Japan.

For additional information please visit our website: http://www.ifkf.org/awards/joel-d-kopple-award.html

Let us know if you have any questions, please contact Cinthya Uzcategui, email address: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org.

WKD—Initiatives
See the picture of the 10th WKD in Hong Kong. The 10th WKD was celebrated in Hong Kong by 800+ healthcare staff and patients with songs and dances (to promote exercise), including a flash mob dance by 100 people and a line dance participated by all attendees to the music of “HAPPY”. Healthcare staff took part in a short drama to promote “Kidney Health for All”. The IFKF WKD website was translated to Chinese. (click on the image to see the video of the flash mob)

We will like to receive more information about the activities and programs in your organization. Share information with us, so we can share this with all of our IFKF’s members.

Do not forget to send us pictures of your WKD Activity so we can share this with all of our members.

Email: cinthya.uzcategui@ifkf.org